“Feel” the difference with Leslie Jordan Apparel

Leslie Jordan is a direct manufacturer of performance apparel, working with a variety of customers looking for quality custom product priced competitively and delivered on time.

Every custom engineered garment we make is put through rigorous testing in our R&D department, and sampled by several athletes before being selected as a Leslie Jordan creation.

Our performance fabrics are available in many colors, or you can have fabric custom dyed to your color specifications. Once a style and color has been determined, our factories go to work creating your order. Schedule your order in advance, to get the best pricing!

Our commitment to quality control in our factories guarantees your product will exceed expectations.
